HENRY H. ROGERS.

H. H. ROGERS SUFFERS HEAT STROKE AT DESK.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, July 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Henry H. Rogers, the Standard Oil's active head, was concerned and surprised late today to learn for the first time that he was seriously ill.

He was suddenly stricken at his desk last Monday and had to be assisted from his office at No. 26 Broadway.

Since then he has been under the care of physicians at his beautiful country home in Fairhaven.

It was reported tonight that Mr. Rogers was out of danger, but his physicians have enjoined relaxation from business.

His illness was due, it is said, to heat stroke. But his health has been poor for some time past and it was in defiance of physicians' warnings that he had been working practically alone the entire business day.

field deliberately as corruptionists and began to debase our officers and to complete the hideous task of making this, for the time being at least, the worst-governed city in the whole United States.

But the doors of the rich corporation officials had already been bought up by the established company, and it was up to the city to take the office man's case.

At whose door shall you lay these acts of crime and debauchery? Not at the doors of the poor devils of Supervisors who sold their souls with their vote.

But at the doors of the rich corporation officials, the monopolists who wanted to hold something they were not entitled to have.

Whomoting they wanted to hold something they were not entitled to have.

Oh, I admit they were willing to be bribed. I admit they were weak enough and criminal-minded enough to sell their honor and their city for a paltry dollar.

But I give this corporation to corrupt and debase our government?

We admit that men who are weak enough and wicked enough to take bribes must be and will be elected to office.

You know that when these rich defendants have been placed in the prison bars, they belong there.

There will be hundreds and thousands of weak and even vicious men ready to take the office man's case.

the rogues whom exposure has turned out. But these men will come into office with their usual and usual unsullied by bribes—clean, but weak.

Shall they then be debauched in turn by such rich corporations as the man Glass who sits there with bowed head before you?

For the last half-hour, Glass had been sitting in the customary place in the front pew of the synagogue with his head bowed forward on the back of the seat in front of him.

BRIDE-GIVERS DENOUNCED.

"Who are these men?" cried Henry, his strong voice ringing to the dome, his face crimsoned with the force that his words carried.

pointing at Glass; "who are these men, I say, to throw bricks at Bostox and Loneragan and Coffey and to make a wretched rest of them for taking a $5000 bribe?"

For God's sake, if Bostox was willing to take a $5000 bribe, why was Glass eager to give it to him? Why, if not that he was willing to turn that $5000 over and over again until it had swelled to a shameful $500,000 in the corporation's coffers?

"Oh, these rich corporationists! These rich debauchers! These heads of clubs and bulwarks of society and leaders of fashion and finance! I tell you, if it was not that I love my country, I would vomit in reply to the position of the 'defense' they assume."

Henry then proceeded to denounce Glass.

Louis Glass, a non-confessed brother of criminals, the man who made Bostox a criminal, the man who made Loneragan a criminal—the man who made every one a criminal, and led them on as on us they sold this city to the public utility corporations, who took from your city and mine the right to telephone competition.

"Why shame us before the civilized world by debauching our officials before the long-distance charges you have to pay. Do you, intelligent men, suppose for a minute that the vice-president and general manager of the Pacific States Telephone Company, Louis Glass, was asleep to the danger that threatened his monopoly by the proposal of the Home Telephone Company to start a rival system here? As soon as the Home Telephone people came changed his mind about putting witnesses on the stand because the prosecution had failed to make out a case; there was no case to meet.

Adjournment was taken until 2 o'clock to allow Henry time in which to prepare his opening argument.

This occupied one hour and forty-five minutes of the afternoon session and held unwavering the attention of a large audience of men and women that filled two-thirds of the cushioned pews of the synagogue.

After stating frankly to the jury that the defection of Second Vice-President Zimmer, the most important individual witness for the State, had put it beyond the power of the prosecution to establish directly the connection of Glass with the crime of bribing Supervisor Charles Bostox, Henry devoted himself to a vigorous exposition of the circumstantial case made out.

He claimed that by carrying out successfully a process of elimination he had proved beyond all reasonable doubt that other than Henry only two men had the power to supply the telephone funds for the bribery of the Supervisors—Emile J. Zimmer and Louis Glass.

Henry's speech, though full of fire and logic, did not compare in power with his address to the Mayor Schmitta jury. It was the opinion of many who heard him that he was saving himself for the closing argument tomorrow, and that he will show his real strength then.

"Justice," said Attorney Coogan—the white-haired life-long friend of the defendant—in opening his argument for Glass tonight—"should be the same kind in all cases. Here is a man who has run over three-fourths of the space allotted to mankind, and who now finds himself confronted with a serious crime before a jury. It means a great deal to him. But if he is guilty of this offense you should not consider this consequence to him. One thing you must at all times remember and the court will so instruct you; that the presumption of innocence is ever with the accused, and you must give to him the benefit of any and every reasonable doubt that in your minds may arise."

"It is charged that Mr. Glass paid Supervisor Bostox the sum of $5000 to influence his vote on the Home Telephone Company's application for a franchise. The proposition in this case was that crime committed, and if so, who committed it?"

Thereafter Mr. Coogan bent his energies to the explanation of three chief points. The failure of the prosecution to show by any witness that Glass aided, encouraged or abetted the perpetration of that crime; the improbability of his commission by Glass because of lack of motive; and the fatal error of "laying the sins and wrongdoings of the Pacific States Telephone Company on the shoulders of this defendant."

HENRY DEMANDS CONVICTION OF GLASS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Asst. Atty. Francis J. Henry began his opening argument to the jury a few minutes after 2 o'clock. The auditorium of the Temple was well filled with spectators, many of them women.

Mr. Deamus was absent, preparing the argument for the defense.

Mr. Henry, in a quiet and conversational way, explained to the jury that the prosecution never expected to show that the alleged bribe of $5000 for the vote of Supervisor Charles Bostox against an ordinance granting a competitive franchise to the Home Telephone Company was paid to Bostox by Glass, but he said the jury was to determine whether the prosecution had proved that Glass authorized Henry to pay the money.

In which case Glass, under the law, was just as guilty of the crime of bribery as if he had actually paid over the bribe.

Advertising to the defection of Second Vice-President Zimmer of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company (now in jail for contempt in refusing to testify against Glass) Henry said the jury that if such acts of bribery and obstruction of justice were to be permitted to save corporation officials like Louis Glass from punishment for their crimes of corruption, if such tricks were to extort from an American jury verdicts of acquittal, then men who would with impunity go forth and commit cold-blooded murder in the streets and escape the gallows by the simple refusal of a witness to testify to their guilt.

The testimony of Zimmer, said Henry, was necessary to the prosecution to prove, as it alone could prove, that the $5000 worth of checks by which was secured the money to bribe the Supervisors were drawn by Zimmer by direction of Glass and turned over to Henry through Zimmer by the same direction and when Zimmer was "persuaded" to go back on his grand jury testimony and refused to repeat it as evidence in court, the prosecution was designedly robbed of its most valuable individual witness.

Henry charged that the "pulling down" of Zimmer was the direct and criminal work of the defendant Glass. He charged that Treasurer Kennedy of the Pacific States company deliberately perjured himself at the behest of Glass when, upon being recalled to the stand, he changed his testimony in a vital point as to the month in which those checks were drawn.

"You, gentlemen of the jury, as reasonable men, cannot believe any conclusion that the witness Kennedy was prostituted and corrupted by the defendant Glass."

Continuing, Mr. Henry asked: "Did Bostox get this money from Henry for the purpose of influencing his vote? That is the question I am asked by the evidence. We review the evidence to show that Glass is responsible for the bribery."

REVIEW OF EVIDENCE.

"In June, 1905, the Home Telephone Company came into San Francisco with an application for a franchise. When an application in made for a franchise, it must be advertised for sale to the highest bidder. Mr. Pillsbury, as a member of the board of directors of the Pacific company, has testified that he had urged that they must improve the service in order to prevent competition. That was the situation in June, 1905. The Pacific at once became active to prevent a franchise to the Home company.

The first thing they did was to put Superior Bostox on a salary of $100 per month. What for? Why to be friendly to the company, to see that no measures contrary to the interests of the Pacific were passed by the board of directors, gentlemen of the jury, that no opposition company should compete for the telephone business of San Francisco."

Henry described the Pacific company as the keynote in the telephone situation in the Pacific West.

"Anybody," he said, "can tell that by the long-distance charges you have to pay. Do you, intelligent men, suppose for a minute that the vice-president and general manager of the Pacific States Telephone Company, Louis Glass, was asleep to the danger that threatened his monopoly by the proposal of the Home Telephone Company to start a rival system here? HAYWOOD SOON TO KNOW FATE.

Laborers Conclude Arguments Tonight.

Borah Bitterly Denounces Defense Methods.

Darrow Says Simpkins Fled Because of Fear.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

BOISE (Idaho) July 25.—The case of the State of Idaho against William D. Haywood, charged with the murder of Frank Steunenberg, a former Governor of the State, will rest with Judge and jury by tomorrow night.

Clarence Darrow, after speaking for eleven hours, concluded the final plea for Haywood's life at 4:20 p.m., and at 6 o'clock this evening United States Senator Borah opened the closing argument for the prosecution. He will speak for three sessions, or about seven hours. Judge Fremont Wood will instruct and charge the jury on Saturday morning.

At least 1000 people were unable to find seats in the courtroom tonight. Two hours before the hour set for the third session of the day, crowds began to arrive and within half an hour the doors were closed to all but court officials and newspaper men.

BORAH'S FRIENDS. It was an audience composed almost entirely of Boise people gathered to hear the speech of the young man who recently was elected by the people of Idaho to represent them in the United States Senate, and has been the associate counsel for the prosecution in the case against Haywood.

Aside from the accustomed crowd in the courtroom, and the large number of women present, the scene was much as it has been at each of the sessions during the last eleven weeks. Mrs. Steunenberg, the widow of the murdered Governor, appeared in the courtroom for the first time since the trial opened. She occupied a seat inside the railing, beside her youngest son, Julian.

Gov. Gooding, with a number of the executive staff and a large representation of the State judiciary and bar, were among the audience. Haywood was surrounded by seven or eight men, and his wife, in her invalid chair, was, as usual, by his side.

At the prosecution's table, when Senator Borah rose to speak, were seated two of the assistant counsel, but James H. Hawley, leading counsel for the State, was not in his place, owing to serious illness.

SPEECH IN SENATION.

Senator Borah's speech was a sensation. From time to time he turned on counsel for the defense, fierce denunciations pouring from his lips, and at times brought protest from Richardson and Darrow, but with blazing eyes and hot words he silenced every effort to break the torrent of words.

The climax was reached when, in behalf of the State of Idaho, its people, its Governor and himself, he disclaimed all intention or desire to give immunity to Orchard.

Finally, his face pale and quivering with emotion, the Senator raised his arm and said:

"If I should ever join in or give approval to immunity to this man, I hope the great God may wither my right arm to the socket."

DARROW TELLS WHY SIMPKINS RAN AWAY.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

BOISE (Idaho) July 25.—In resuming his address to the Haywood jury this morning, Clarence Darrow of Chicago, took up a defense of Jack Simpkins, flight after the arrest of Harry Orchard. Mr. Darrow's voice was very hoarse, the result of his five hours and forty minutes of speaking yesterday and he spoke today only with the greatest of effort.

"They ask us why Jack Simpkins is not here," said Mr. Darrow, "and I will tell you. The reason he is not here is that he is afraid to be here. I don't propose to go around the question and give any fantastic reasons. He is afraid; that's the reason. Hawley tells you that Simpkins fled because he is guilty. With that statement I take serious issue. The fact that Simpkins ran away proves he is guilty, then by the same token the fact that Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone did not run away proves that they are innocent. One is just as true as the other, and I am sure, I need not think I could tell whether a man was guilty or not by the way he acted, but I got over that long ago. Some of the guiltiest men I ever knew have acted in the most calm and innocent manner while many an innocent man has had to take refuge from the mob."

"I don't know whether Jack Simpkins is innocent or not. Is there any way I can tell and be honest about this jury? I haven't seen him after he ran away. He was in Caldwell with Orchard and was Orchard's friend. Simpkins had been in the Idaho bullpen and the indignities to which he was subjected in his heart, and he will probably burn there forever for all I know."

REASON FOR HATRED.

"Simpkins had reason to harbor hatred against Steunenberg. Orchard had reason, either rightly or wrongly to harbor hatred against Steunenberg. Simpkins and Orchard had been together in Spokane for a month before they went to Caldwell. If Jack Simpkins went there for the purpose Orchard has told, and I prefer to think that he was merely on a trip to the Southern Idaho unions and stopped off at Caldwell for a day or two at Orchard's solicitation; whatever Simpkins went to Caldwell to do he went away without doing it. He did not raise a hand against Steunenberg."

"Hawley blames us for reflecting Simpkins to the executive board. It might have been better to have left him off. This is a cowardly world. It might have been better for the members of the Western Federation of Miners to have turned their back on him when he was accused, but if they had done that Hawley would have told of the fact that the federation dropping Simpkins showed beyond doubt that the man was guilty. But this is not the stuff the brave men of the Western Federation are made of."

FAIRER TRIAL TODAY.

"You men know that these defendants are far safer than they were eighteen months ago. Men's passions cool, their feelings subside and they look at things more calmly and fairly. You know these defendants are having a fair trial today, that they could have had twelve months ago. It is natural that they should. A year hence I venture to say that every man not hanged can get a fair trial in Boise."

Mr. Darrow here went into a lengthy discussion as to why the defense had not put up Steve Adams and George A. Pettibone on the stand. He demanded to know why the State had not put K. C. Sterling, the detective of the Mine Owners' Association on the stand. Adams, the attorney explained, is on trial for the murder of a man in Northern Idaho. Under these circumstances, Mr. Darrow said, he would rather cut off his right arm than allow Adams to take the stand, much as he desired the acquittal of Haywood. As to Pettibone, Darrow said the circumstances were much the same. He is to be tried for his life for the murder of Gov. Steunenberg.

The reason the defense put Moyer on the stand while he too, is awaiting trial, Mr. Darrow said, is that there is no evidence of any sort for Moyer to explain. He expressed the belief that Moyer never would be tried, for he did not believe that the prosecution was even so foolish as to dare to put a man on trial on such flimsy evidence as could be entered against Moyer.

Mr. Darrow picked out the story told by Orchard as the plan for kidnapping August Paulsen's child.

CRIPPLE CREEK WAR.

Then plunging vigorously into the Cripple Creek troubles, Mr. Darrow declared that "When some day the people get the right angle on his case and look back at the Colorado labor troubles they will have read one of the most important and pregnant chapters in the history of the United States."

"Talk about law and order," he exclaimed, "nowhere in all the world has order been trampled in the dust as it has been at Cripple Creek by the Mine Owners' Association and their cohorts, the respectable, merchants, bankers and the like, and the disreputable 'gun men.'"

Mr. Darrow eulogized all the witnesses introduced by the defense. He said they had all been called murderers, perjurors and assassins by Hawley, but they were all brave men, not sneaking craven cowards who would let a bomb to a man's front door and stand by and watch the explosion.

At 4:30 p.m. court adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Senator Borah will continue his argument then.

POLICE UNEARTH SCANDAL.

Headquarters of "American Salvation Army" in Brooklyn Are Raided.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) BROOKLYN (N. Y.) July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) As a result of a raid last night on the "American Salvation Army" headquarters at No. 1825 Fulton street, one prisoner was held under bond by Magistrate Tighe this morning as a material witness in the case that Dist. Atty. Clarke of Kings county promises will be one of the most sensational ever developed in this country.

"It is a case that will rival the great scandal which has recently consumed Berlin court circles, the only difference being that the persons involved are of a lower strata of society," he declared after the hearing. In the raid twelve prisoners were taken. They included "General" James W. Duffin of Philadelphia, organizer of the army, and "Major" Charles E. Ross of Providence, next in command. Others arrested were employees and inmates of the headquarters, who were wanted to give evidence that would break up practices which are alleged to include the maltreatment of young boys.

One of the latter is Stewart Scoville of St. Louis, who was brought here from Philadelphia. He is the witness who was held under bond, because his story the police expect to use as a basis upon which to build their case against the men involved. Numerous charges are made by the police, the least of which is that the officers of the "army" sell magazines, papers and clothing gathered from the charitable inclined people of Brooklyn, to be given to the poor.

Black Hand Members Become Adepts by Using Rubber Man as Victim.

Sessions were held in a secluded house at night and a rubber man was used as the victim. To instruct the members to become adepts in the use of the attleto. performed criminal, and he was not alone in the commission of crime.

"The defense would have you believe that notwithstanding that which Moyer may have done, what Pettibone may have done, or what Orchard may have done, Haywood is not guilty."

"But the law, gentlemen of the jury, says that when men knowingly join together to commit a crime, the act of one is the act of the other, no matter where that other may be at the time of the commission of the crime."

DARROW'S TALK IS ENOUGH.

"The only question here is to whether or not evidence has been adduced to satisfy you that there was a conspiracy. Counsel for the defense has said that we have not shown an 'inner circle,' or an organized bureau, for crimes. Well, could pretty nearly rest the proof of that proposition on the argument of Mr. Darrow tonight?"

Senator Borah declared that Attorney Darrow in his address to the jury, had offered subtle hints as to the guilt for the murder of Gov. Steunenberg. He set himself up in defiance of all the laws of public decency, and said that the defense was not guilty of the crime of the murder of Gov. Steunenberg.

"If the doctrine that Darrow preached to you be true, I am not surprised that these men committed murder," said Senator Borah, who then turned upon Attorney Richardson and declared that if Harry Orchard is crazy it was no complaint to one of the greatest lawyers in the West that that man did not confess any of his insanity in a week's cross-examination.

"The counsel for the defense," said Senator Borah, "tell you that Orchard was caught red-handed in the act of killing Steunenberg, that he confessed to save his own neck, and if he hadn't confessed the daisies could have been blooming on his grave for a year past."

WOULD DEFEND ORCHARD.

"Oh, no, gentlemen of the jury, if Orchard had not confessed the attorney for the Western Federation of Miners would be in this courtroom defending and eulogizing him as a brave man, a member of the great working class, and my friend Richardson would convince you beyond reasonable doubt that Orchard could not be guilty of the killing of Gov. Steunenberg, because he was in his room at the Saratoga hotel when the bomb went off."

Preaching on Mr. Darrow's view of Christianity, Senator Borah exclaimed eloquently that it was too late in the morning of the twentieth century to write upon the brow of Him of Calvary "Imposter," too late to brand "False Prophet" on Him who said: "This day thou shalt be with Me in Paradise."

At 4:30 p.m. court adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Senator Borah will continue his argument then.

Suggests Change to Define Criminal Compacts.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) July 25.—Charles G. Dawes, of Chicago addressed the Wisconsin Bankers' Association here today on "The Defects of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law."

He said that there were trade agreements that were of benefit to the public as well as vicious agreements, but that the law made no distinction between them, and he declared that this defect must be remedied if real progress is made toward the solution of the vexed industrial problems which confront the nation. Mr. Dawes said: "The Sherman anti-trust law makes criminal all agreements in restraint of trade, whether they are inherently criminal or not. It makes it a crime to enter into a contract with a competitor to restrain trade, and it makes it a crime to enter into a contract with a competitor to restrain trade."

"The Sherman anti-trust law makes criminal all agreements in restraint of trade, whether they are inherently criminal or not. It makes it a crime to enter into a contract with a competitor to restrain trade, and it makes it a crime to enter into a contract with a competitor to restrain trade."

ARMED GIRLS GUARD GRAVES.

THREATEN TO SHOOT IF DESTRUCTION IS ATTEMPTED.

Three Sisters of Wyandotte Family of Indians Object to Removal of Bodies of Ancestors from Old-time Burying Ground in Kansas City, Kan.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) July 25.—Helena, Idaho and Lida Conley, sisters and Wyandotte Indians, began an armed guard today over the graves of their ancestors in Huron cemetery in Kansas City, Kan., recently ordered sold by the government, and threaten to shoot the first person who may attempt to remove the bodies.

Congress authorized the sale of the cemetery, set aside for many years as the tribal burying ground, and a division among members of the Wyandotte tribe, first removing the bodies. The Conley girls say they will not permit the graves to be touched, and they began the erection of a shanty on the outskirts of the cemetery. Miss Helena Conley said:

"From this time on one of the three Conley sisters will be here in the day time. At night all three of us shall sleep here. In this cemetery are buried one hundred of our ancestors. We shall not allow anyone to touch them. We shall keep right on asking bids on the property," says H. B. Durant, chairman of the civil commission which is trying to sell the cemetery. "The government is behind us."

RIKERS GET A WARNING.

Minnesota's Governor Visits Iron Ore Towns.

State Will Protect All Who Want to Work.

Are Told That Violence Must Be Stopped.

TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.
DULUTH (Minn.) July 25.—Unless the strikers become more aggressive, they are at present, State troops will be called to the Mesabi range. This was decided by Gov. J. A. Johnson today, after an inspection of the situation at Hibbing, Virginia, and the three principal towns in the strike region. At Hibbing, the governor met T. J. Petrella, manager of the Mesabi Iron Range, and assured that there is no intention of using force for apprehension at Hibbing, where he was met by a number of the strikers and escorted to the city hall.

The Governor, in a speech, said the State would protect every man who wished to go to work; the State would tolerate no violence on the part of strikers, and would be called out instantly. He did believe any such contingency would arise and counselled all to be calm.

PROMISE TO BE GOOD.

DULUTH (Minn.) July 25.—Gov. Johnson arrived here this afternoon, leaving Hibbing. Petrella told the governor that he would discontinue the strike because it would hurt the cause of the men on trial at Duluth. The governor said a parade of the strikers would be a parade of violence.

MINERS TALK STRIKE.
Duluth to Brand of Powder Which Owners of Collieries Force Them to Buy.
DULUTH (Minn.) July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The question of whether the strikers shall go out to work because they do not like the brand of powder which the mine owners wish them to buy, is the subject of a conference at Duluth tonight.

The conference is being held at the home of the Miners' Union and will be attended by the representatives of the Miners' Union and the owners of the collieries. The miners demand that the owners select the brand of powder which they use in their mines.

The owners of the collieries have refused to select the brand of powder which the miners demand, and the miners have threatened to strike again.

JUDGE MOODY IS DENOUNCED.

HARGIS CASE DECLARED TRAVESTY ON JUSTICE.

Severest Criticism Ever Made of Jurist in Kentucky Appears in Newspaper at Lexington, Ky., and Creates Sensation Throughout the State.

TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.
LEXINGTON (Ky.) July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A. Floyd Byrd of Winchester, Clark county, who for five years has worked incessantly to convict Judge Hargis of Breckinridge county for the assassination of Dr. B. D. Cox, James Cockrell and James B. Marcum, is out in a card in the local newspapers here today, in which he bitterly attacks Judge W. B. Moody, who was appointed to sit in trial of Judge Hargis at Sandy Hook, Elliptical county, for the assassination of Dr. Cox.

Judge Moody refused to grant permission to take the case back to Breckinridge county for trial, and Attorney Byrd, J. J. Byrd and Waugh, for the prosecution, recognizing the fact that they could not get important Commonwealth witnesses to Sandy Hook, withdrew from the case. Moody then ordered the jury to dismiss Hargis. Moody then came here and gave out an interview, in which he severely criticized the prosecution attorneys for withdrawing from the case, saying he could have secured all the witnesses needed. Byrd contradicts Moody, saying that Moody knew that when he made this statement that he could not do anything of the kind. Byrd gives the names of several witnesses who were of utmost importance to the Commonwealth who could not be secured. They were needed to corroborate the testimony of Anne White, John Smith and Asbury Spicer. Anne White swore that Judge Hargis gave him a pistol at Jackson to go into the courthouse at Jackson, where Cockrell was on trial for killing Ben Hargis, brother of Judge Hargis, and there start a quarrel and kill Dr. Cox and John Cockrell. White swears he refused to do this. John Smith and Asbury Spicer swore that they were hired by Judge Hargis and Ed Callahan to kill Dr. Cox and they, with John Abner, did the killing.

Byrd points out that this was the last chance to convict Judge Hargis, and that with the proper support of the trial judge, witnesses could have been secured. He adds that although Judge Moody said he would get the necessary witnesses there, he did not do so. Witnesses who would have corroborated Anne White, Smith and Spicer were J. B. Little of Harpenn, Tenn.; Mose Frazier of Hamilton, O., who swore Hargis and Callahan tried to hire him to kill Cox and Marcum; W. Vaughn of Anas, Okla.; Dr. Carl Baker of Anas, Okla.; Dr. Little, Anne White, Mrs. Curt Smith and Robert Deaton of Breckinridge county; Miss Mary Evans of Fayette county and

JUDGE JAMES HARGIS.

Lewis Evans of Peoria county. Judge Moody said here that Mrs. Sewell of Breckinridge county, he was informed, could not be secured. Byrd says her name was not mentioned, and she was not particularly needed.

Byrd's contradictions of Moody and his attendant remarks make the severest criticism ever made of a jurist in Union Square for defying the blackmailing demands asked as patriotic contributions.

The warning was conveyed. It is presumed, by agents of the Hunchakist Society, and it has greatly terrified the many men listed as doomed.

So serious was the situation become among the representatives of the society in their demands for money from their wealthy fellow-countrymen that the District Attorney has abandoned his plans for a vacation in order to personally direct the police in their efforts to prevent the threatened murders. Mr. Jerome had intended to spend this week at Lakeville, Ct., but he has now determined to remain here until further developments.

These developments have thrown the coteries of wealthy Armenians around whom the plot is centered into a state of acute alarm. No thoroughly are they demoralized by the threats that it was reported during the day many of them were on the point of paying the money demanded.

NEW YORK, July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) "If you care for your life, keep away from the District Attorney and the police."

This message was sent over the telephone today to all the wealthy Armenians in this city, who have been marked for assassination such as befell Hovhannes Tavashenjan, a millionaire rug importer, who was shot and killed in Union Square for defying the blackmailing demands asked as patriotic contributions.

JEWISH WOMEN IN MEAT RIOT.

SIX THOUSAND STORM BUTCHERS OF PHILADELPHIA.

Vigorous Protest Against Advance of Three Cents in the Price of Kosher Meats Turns Quaker City Ghetto into a Bedlam and Scores of Arrests Are Made.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Six thousand Jewish women, many of them mothers with babies in arms, gathered in the streets of the Ghetto today to boycott the butchers who had combined and raised the price of kosher meats 3 cents per pound.

It was a strange uprising, only to be duplicated in Russian cities during broad riots. Everywhere in the Jewish section of the city women scratched and bit one another and came out of the frays bleeding, with clothing torn and disheveled. The riot was so widespread that the police were taken unawares. Reinforcements were called from half a dozen police stations into the Ghetto, but despite this the officers were at a great disadvantage throughout the day. Scores of arrests were made. Some of the magistrates turned the women loose with not even a reprimand and others imposed sentences to the county prison along with fines. As a rule, though, the women were back with the mob more disorderly than ever, half an hour after arrest.

Some women poured kerosene on meat displayed in a Kosher shop in the early morning. The idea spread rapidly, and it was not long until the kerosene can became the emblem of the riot. Before noon it seemed that half the women in the unruly crowds that surged up and down the streets, seeking more Kosher meat to destroy, were armed with this unique weapon—the kerosene can. Kerosene was poured upon all meats displayed in open stalls and on the butchers themselves and those who had the temerity to resist were doused with the fluid. In the afternoon things quieted down a bit. An indignation meeting had been called and the attracted many of the women rioters. The Kosher meat dealers, seeing themselves hopelessly outnumbered, realized the futility of the struggle and began refusing to sell meat open to such customers as were still brave enough to ask for it.

SONOMA GIRL PROVES BEST.

Great Highball Is Swept Off His Feet in M. and M.

Springer's Mare Loses First Heat by Poor Start.

Horse and Owner Presented With Floral Banner.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

DETROIT, July 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sonoma Girl, who showed herself as a trotter, today, when she beat Highball and the other mares, and M. and M. trouters in the most decisive fashion, doing the trick under circumstances not as favorable to her chances as to those of her opponents.

After finishing second in the Geers home in the opening heat of the race, her defeat being due solely to the fact that she was obliged by her own slowness in starting to accept the worst of the start by her opponents. She came out for the second mile a model trotter in every way, and fairly raced Highball into the ground in 2:06 1-4.

These she won by a margin of 2-8ths. Then she came back apparently as fresh as ever, and led the weary gelding around the course in 2:09 1-4, he stopping so in the last eighth that three others also passed him.

That is the story of the race in brief, the contest being confined entirely to the two horses named, while Beatrice Bellini beat the rest of the field with equal ease.

But before the California mare's superiority was established, there were heat after heat, and in scoring for the first heat it looked as though she would have a handicap herself by bad behavior at the post as to make the race an easy one for Highball.

Sonoma Girl had been a steady favorite in the betting, which was tremendous, and her backers went wild as they saw the contest mistress of the situation at the end of the second heat.

The defeat of Highball was too decisive to admit of any doubt. He had to get away trotting his best, had the pole all the way, made his own pace, and then was trumped on in the home stretch. There was no excuse. The mare was a good deal the better.

This fact was impressed in the third mile, when Sonoma Girl went in to the lead and held the position all the way. The pace was slower than in the previous miles, but fast enough for Highball, who trailed a length or so back of the mare. She was at the quarter in 1:12 1-2, and in the second and three-quarters in 1:56 1-2.

Some of the Highball partisans hoped for a Geers run in the home stretch, but Highball had faded out. Instead of going faster as the wire was near, he went slower and slower, until he was a good deal behind the place. Geers did not punish the place, Geers did not punish the place, Geers did not punish the place.

Then a great floral banner was brought out for the winner and Capt. Springer was photographed standing alongside of it. The crowd cheered man and horse to the echo, and the great race was over.

GANS-BURNS FIGHT READY.

Articles Call for Weight at the Ring.

Black Champ Will Reach
Here Next Friday.

Inter-City Try-out Card Is Next Attraction.

Joe Bell, manager for Joe Gans, arrived in this city yesterday morning from San Francisco, and before the day was over the match between Gans and Jimmy Burns, before the Pacific Athletic Club on August 14, had been agreed upon. Nothing remains to be done but the signing of the contract and the deposit of $2000 by each of the fighters to guarantee weight and appearance in the ring.

The conditions of the match were so well known several days ago that there was little to discuss between McCarey and Bell. It had been proposed that the men fight at 125 pounds at 5 o'clock on the afternoon of the fight but Bell insisted that Gans insisted on 125 at the ring, and this was readily agreed to by Jimmy Burns. He fought nearly best at 125 pounds and McCarey Kid at 125, so there will be no doubt about the weight question.

In brief, the match will be for a $1000 purse, of which Gans will get $500, win, lose or draw. Jim Jeffries will act as referee, or some other man to be named upon and strategists. Queensbury rules will govern. The match would have been signed up yesterday, but Jimmy Burns did not have the time to sign it. Jimmy Burns is ready to fight and McCarey went out to Arroyo and McCarey will put it up this morning, even if Burns's check does not reach here from San Francisco.

Jimmy Burns wired late yesterday afternoon that he would guarantee the fight and McCarey will put it up this morning, even if Burns's check does not reach here from San Francisco. Jimmy Burns did not have the time to sign it. Jimmy Burns is ready to fight and McCarey went out to Arroyo and McCarey will put it up this morning, even if Burns's check does not reach here from San Francisco.

TRY-OUT BOYS WORKING.
The boys who will furnish the try-out card next Tuesday night for the club, are putting in their best effort and it is reported that all of them are in. On paper the card looks to be about the best of its kind ever held here, as it represents the best of San Francisco against the best of Walsh will referee.

ELVILLE LONG
SURE TO COME.
THE CHAMPION IS TO PLAY IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

San Francisco is to be scene of the opening of the biggest event in the tennis year in the south, the Elville Long, Coast Championship. Play is to commence at the Venice Country Club next Monday morning.

Long has been received from Melville Long, Coast tennis champion, and Elville Long, one of the northern players, who were present at last year's championship tournament, that both will be on hand. The presence of the two players will be a distinct feature of the tournament as it will show an element of sectional rivalry to the play, as well as add to the class of the tournament. Long is one of the most brilliant young tennis players in the Coast and has ever produced a match that is a treat to watch.

It is expected that this year's tournament will mark a return to the old style of tournaments that were so popular on the old Casino courts at Santa Monica. Many of the old-timers will be on hand. Among them, Elville Long, John D. McGilvray, and John D. McGilvray. In the doubles Rowan and McGilvray will make a team.

It is doubtful whether Champion Hall will be able to play in defense of his title, but should he decide to play, he will be able to put up a good fight. He will not compete in the tournament. Eugene Overton, who was supposed to make his third try for the Coast championship cup, has announced his determination not to play. His withdrawal is a disappointment to the fans, as he was one of the popular racket wielders in Los Angeles.

The courts at the Venice Country Club will be in far better condition than in the past. The two courts in front of the clubhouse have been greatly improved by the addition of five extra feet of sand on each end. The ground has been hardened out and the sand on the back-lines as well as on the front-lines has been added. The improvement is in the fourth of July tournament.

All of the rooms at the Country Club have been engaged for the tournament and everything points to an excellent success. The tournament will be held at the Venice Country Club. The tournament will be held at the Venice Country Club. The tournament will be held at the Venice Country Club.

GLIDDEN TOUR WILL BE RUN NEXT YEAR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, July 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There will be another Glidden tour. That much was agreed upon among the American Automobile Association leaders today when they gathered to discuss the details of the finish of the third big tour yesterday.
"I have invited criticism," said Charles J. Glidden, donor of the famous trophy, "by stating that the tour will cease to be one of the attractions of the automobile world in a couple of years. But I mean it. The industry is moving rapidly, and something more strenuous will be demanded by the makers of the cars."
"There is no doubt, however, that the run just concluded with nineteen cars in the perfect race class, and two with clean scores in the for the slower trophy for runabouts was the most successful, as well as the most difficult that American-made machines have had. I look for another Glidden tour in 1908, and would not be surprised if it were turned into a transcontinental run from New York to the Pacific Coast."
At the hotels in the evening, after mud and dust had been removed and clothing had been changed, the drivers and cars emphasized several points as the lessons of the tour. One will never be forgotten by the participants. It is, "Work hard for good roads. The United States should blush when medieval roads like those in Ohio and some parts of Pennsylvania are pointed out as highways."

WOMAN DIES GAME.
Mrs. Fromkina, Russian Terrorist, Refusing to Plead for Mercy, Is Hanged.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.] MOSCOW, July 25.—With the observance of the greatest privacy, Mme. Fromkina, who in March last, attempted to assassinate Gen. Rhebnot, the ex-prefect of police, and who in May made another attempt to murder the inspector of the political prison here, wounding him with a pistol which had been mysteriously smuggled into her cell, was hanged in this city at sunrise today.
The authorities made every effort during the past fortnight to persuade the woman to plead for the mercy of the Emperor, but she obstinately refused to do so. Her parents interceded with the throne in her behalf, but their efforts were unavailing.
Mme. Fromkina was not charged with actual murder, but she was accused of making several ineffectual attempts to kill officials. It is believed her mind was unbalanced and that she was suffering from hysteria.

THIRD TERM POSTAL CARDS.

PRESIDENT BOMBARDED WITH REQUESTS TO RUN AGAIN.

Some One Starts Movement by Mail to Induce Chief Executive to Change His Mind Concerning the Acceptance of Another Nomination. Printed in Philadelphia.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, July 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] From all parts of the country President Roosevelt has during the last few days received postal cards urging him to reconsider his declaration of 1904 and accept a third nomination for the Presidency. They are rather elaborately printed, containing a picture of the White House, under which is the inscription, "Uncle Sam will renew the lease," and bearing the printed paragraph:

"I desire to express my entire satisfaction with your administration as President of 'Our Country' and believing that the great work inaugurated during that time would be best completed were you again President. I would urge you to reconsider your declaration of 1904 and accept another nomination."

Printed in Philadelphia, the cards have come from many States, and the growing flood of them indicates that some one has started a vigorous campaign to induce the President to change his mind.

RIVER SWALLOWS UP WHOLE TOWN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEBRASKA CITY (Neb.) July 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Missouri River last night won a thirty years' fight against the town of Barney, Neb., when it swelled up the bank, house in the town and carried it off down the river.

Thirty years ago Barney was a thriving town. It was on the line of the Burlington railroad and its prospects were good, it being at one time as large as Nebraska City itself. When the Missouri began cutting toward the town the houses were moved back toward the hills until there was no further room for removal. Then they were washed away one by one and carried down the stream. The railroad did everything possible to prevent the cutting of the stream, but nothing stops the Missouri when it starts.

Where Barney once stood is now the bed of the river which is about a mile wide at that point.

WASHINGTON PROTESTS.
Complaint Made to Salvador Regarding Treatment of Two American Citizens.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, July 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Vigorous protest has been made by the United States against the treatment which Salvador is according to John and George Moissant, American citizens, formerly of San Francisco, who own extensive property near San Salvador.

The men are charged by Salvador with being implicated in the revolutionary attack on the artillery barracks at Sonsonate, after the attack which Nicaragua inspired against Acasitla last month.

The Salvadoran government claims that John Moissant was seen aiding Gen. Escalalon in the attack on the Sonsonate artillery barracks, which followed a raid upon Acasitla by a revolutionary force outfitted in Nicaragua.

FLIGHT SUCCESSFUL.
German Military Balloon Proves Superiority Over French Balloon.
Paris.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] BERLIN, July 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Local aeronauts and military men are jubilant over the results of an experiment with the new German military balloon, which is believed to have achieved one of the most successful trials on record.
The balloon, which was operated under the direction of Maj. Gross, commander of the recently organized airship battalion, ascended from a field in the northern part of Berlin and described wide circles over the Tegel Charlottemburg.
While the details of the experiment are guarded as a military secret, the flight, in the opinion of experts and officers, demonstrated the complete superiority of the new airship over the French balloon, Patrie.

Very Male Resident of Town in Hungary Has Come to America.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A HUNGARIAN, July 24.—The United States as a land of opportunity and wealth to the people of Hungary has brought about a curious state of affairs in the little village of Krievna, near Lugos, that at last census had a population of 350 souls.

By one of the men of the village, a hurried account was given of the emigration in batches of 100 at a time as the "May" is the only adult male to remain in the village. Finally, also, he recounted the tales of good wages and golden opportunities in America sent back by fellow townsmen, and he emigrated.

As a result of this exodus of the young men have just left a young woman in the village of Mayor and other male residents have been obliged to fill the remainder of the village.

WRITES LETTERS TO LOVE LORN.

NEW YORK, July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The letter to the love of Lorn, which is now read by all the East Side.

Under the head of "Winter Brief," or "Bunch of Letters," the Voorwaerts has developed its advice to the lovers department until it is now read by all the East Side.

With Mrs. Stokes, a poor cigar factory girl, who married a man supposed to be worth several millions, in charge of the column and dealing out advice to her Jewish sisters in their love affairs, the Voorwaerts hopes to observe a marked increase in circulation.

YOUNG WOMEN WORK IN FIELDS.

NEW YORK, July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Unable to obtain men enough to harvest fields, Marinette county farmers have hired women in their places.

The farmers were in a dilemma, as crops were beginning to ripen, and the men were scarce. The women were hired to work in the fields, and they were found to be very efficient.

The women are said to do as good work as the men, and they are much less shirking than the men.

HAYWOOD, PRESIDENT. IF HE'S NOT HUNG.

THOMAS MILLS.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES. MUSCATINE (Iowa) July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) It is as certain that he will be the next candidate for President on the Socialist ticket as anything political can be certain, said Walter Thomas Mills this afternoon.

Mills is the Seattle Socialist editor who is lecturing on government ownership.

They are trying to hang Haywood, not because he plotted murder and violence, but because he planned a peaceful policy of securing the control of politics in the Rocky Mountains, which control would be fatal to the mine owners and their kind.

There is no chance for peace in Colorado and the other Rocky Mountain States. The class war is on there and there he must continue to fight. Either the Western Federation of Miners or the Guggenheim interests and their followers must rule. There is no middle ground.

STOCK TRIMMING SALE.

STOCK TRIMMING SALE. STAUB SHOES.

It's the natural outcome of a season's tremendous shoe business.

The best selling, most popular lines have become broken and they must be closed out at once.

Shoes, such as these, are rarely, very rarely, offered at cut prices.

In fact, shoes of as high character and quality are not shown outside of such stores as Staub's.

Price reductions range from 10 to 35 per cent.

The sale will continue till August Third, but earliest buyers will certainly have best choosing.

CIRCULATE THESE Big Facts.

The series of three impressive articles, in The Sunday Times, on the development of Los Angeles, have been assembled in a single half-size 8-page sheet and are now ready for widespread distribution.

Eight Captivating Pages.

These facts, shown in the imposing tables and charts, are convincing evidence of the wonderful strides in population, finance and manufacturing industries, made by Los Angeles, the freest city in America. A wide dissemination of this "meaty" literature will forever set at rest the "doubting Thomases" and jealous neighbors who are harping against the "City of the Angels."

Therefore, all the text and tables of demonstration have been printed in a convenient, 8-page sheet, and are now offered to merchants and others (who will mail them abroad) on the following basis:

In 5000 lots, $5 per thousand. Purchasers to have the privilege of having a red line printed on the front page, reading, "Compliments of John Jones," without extra charge. In addition, The Times will insert, if desired, a page advertisement for any purchaser, changing only the cost to the office in addition to the $5 per thousand.

In less than 5000 lots and down to 2500 copies, $7.50 per thousand, same conditions as 5000 lots.

Less than 2500 and down to 1000 copies, $10 per thousand, same conditions as in 5000 lots.

1000 copies or less, 1c per copy straight, with no extra printing. Send 2c for a single copy.

MARGARET MAGILL DEFENDS FATHER.

CLINTON (Ill.) July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Margaret Magill says her mother, Mrs. Pet Magill, committed suicide. The nineteen-year-old daughter of Fred Magill, accused of wife-murder, clears her father of all blame for her mother's death, and sweeps away all suspicion that the State authorities attach to his movements after his wife's death.

She says that her mother was not sane when she committed suicide, and that she was not responsible for her mother's death. She says that her father was a good man, and that she was not responsible for her mother's death.

TAFT CONTROLS COMMITTEE.

Supporters of War Secretary Claim Majority of Votes of Delegates to Ohio State Convention.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) According to reports received by Secretary Taft's supporters here, the Republican State Committee of Ohio, which meets July 25, will be controlled by the Taft people. They will have twelve of the twenty-one votes on every proposition they want to put through.

The other party trial is with the tried-and-true Taft people on some propositions, but not on the crucial one, that of insuring foraker for another term.

The Taft people claim to have wrested the First, Second, Third, Fourth and Ninth districts from the control of Senators Frazier and Dick, who last fall controlled fourteen of the twenty-one members of the committee, and the delegates to the State convention in the ratio of more than 2 to 1.

SUICIDES AND DEATHS IN HUNT WAVE'S WAKE.

NEW YORK, July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Heat and humidity combined today to inflict suffering on humanity and several deaths were reported as due to the excessive temperature.

Two cases of attempted suicide were also traced to disorders of the mind, brought on by the weather. The severe strain of the weather was felt especially by children. Various charitable and philanthropic agencies throughout the city, did much to alleviate the suffering of the young.

It had been supposed that the hot wave had been blown out to sea, but the temperature recorded in Herald Square was 72 degrees at 6 o'clock yesterday, while at 3 o'clock in the afternoon the mercury rose to 97 degrees.

ST. LOUIS REVEREND SMASHED.

ST. LOUIS, July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The thermometer reached 92 yesterday, the highest point recorded this year, and higher than was reached in 1896. This afternoon the high record was passed and a new figure, 96, from 3 to 4 o'clock, was established. Three dead from the heat and twenty-seven prostrations were today's record of the heat's effect. The dead are: Leo Victor, found dead in his bed at his boarding house on E street, Granite lived at 445 Forest; a physician, Mrs. Consuela Woods, 34, 123 Franklin avenue, died at her home.

Former County Treasurer, Who Embezzled Funds, Now Works as Section Hand.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES. AURORA (Mo.) July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) One of the stoniest incidents connected with the Stone county graft investigation is the conviction of a former county treasurer, William R. Long, who has found himself.

Less than one month ago he was the County Treasurer, and today he is employed by the Missouri Pacific road as a section hand out of Galena.

After his arrest and the appointment by Gov. Folk of his successor, Long, without means and with a family to support. He has a large circle of friends who still believe that he was the victim of overcharges in supposed friends and that he is not as guilty as he is charged.

Thompson Cables from Paris That Premier Auto Race Will Not Be Run.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES. NEW YORK, July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) It was announced today that cable dispatches have been received from Jefferson de Mont Thompson, chairman of the racing board of the American Automobile Association, stating that he had conferred in Paris with W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., donor of the cup, and had decided to call the Vanderbilt cup race off for this year. The reasons assigned for abandoning the race are Gov. Hughes's refusal to allow the use of State troops to police the course if the race should be held in this State and the failure to secure legislative action in New Jersey. The decision to call the race off is a keen disappointment to manufacturers who have spent much money building machines for the contest and to automobile enthusiasts generally.

SUICIDES AND DEATHS IN HUNT WAVE'S WAKE.

NEW YORK, July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Heat and humidity combined today to inflict suffering on humanity and several deaths were reported as due to the excessive temperature.

Two cases of attempted suicide were also traced to disorders of the mind, brought on by the weather. The severe strain of the weather was felt especially by children. Various charitable and philanthropic agencies throughout the city, did much to alleviate the suffering of the young.

It had been supposed that the hot wave had been blown out to sea, but the temperature recorded in Herald Square was 72 degrees at 6 o'clock yesterday, while at 3 o'clock in the afternoon the mercury rose to 97 degrees.

New Mining Exchange.

A meeting of the promoters of the new mining exchange, which is to be a bond to bring Los Angeles and Southern Nevada even closer together, was held last night in the banquet hall of the Alexandria. M. J. Monette of the Hayes-Monette lease, acted as chairman. The result of the meeting was to give Mr. Monette power to select a committee of seven who would consider applications for membership in the new exchange. The membership was limited by vote, to 200, and the entrance fee was placed at $200 for each member. About sixty-five prominent mining men from Nevada and Los Angeles were present.

New Transfer Rate.

Superintendent Akin of the Los Angeles Railway Company has ordered that hereafter no transfers are to be issued by conductors unless they are asked for at the time the fare is paid. Hereafter it has been customary for conductors to issue transfers whenever and wherever requested. This, says Mr. Akin, has made it possible in some cases, to secure a round-trip ride for one fare. Discrimination will be exercised, the officials of the company say, in cases where passengers forget to ask for transfers or change their fares. However, the new order makes it necessary to ask the man in the uniform for a transfer when the fare is paid.

REGULATIONS CHANGED.

Internal Revenue Commissioner Amends Rules Relating to Denaturalized Alcohol.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Amended alcohol regulations have been issued by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Under the new regulations, in addition to denaturing warehouses on distillery premises, central denaturing warehouses may be constructed at such points as business interests may require, and alcohol may be transferred from denaturing warehouses by means of tanks or tank cars to consumers.

Manufacturers using completely denatured alcohol are not required to answer to application for a permit, and a permit when secured continues in force until revoked, and retail dealers in denatured alcohol are not required to keep record of any kind.

KING'S RULE ENDING.

Personal Sovereignty of Leopold Over Congo Free State, Gone by Annexation to Belgium.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

BRUSSELS, July 24.—The close of King Leopold's long struggle to state off the annexation of the Congo by Belgium and retain his personal sovereignty over this vast African state, is foreboded in the agreement reached on July 12, between Belgium and the Congo governments, elaborating the terms upon which the Congo Free State shall pass into the possession of Belgium.

This transfer will mark an important epoch for the Congo, as the entire conduct of affairs, civil and military, has been under the personal direction of King Leopold and a Cabinet of Congo officers entirely separate from and independent of Belgium, whereas the new regime will make the Belgium government, instead of the King individually, responsible for the conduct of the Congo affairs.

The proposed transfer comes at a time when Maj. Lemaire's charges of Congo atrocities are again directing attention to the past administration. Charges of this nature have heretofore aroused much resentment in Europe and the United States, and the Congo administration has sought to meet them in part by the investigation of a committee, the report of which has disclosed many serious abuses.

GOES WITHOUT MALICE.

St. Louis Man Afflicted With Malady Leaves Best Wishes to All and Ends Life.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ST. LOUIS, July 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Ill health, nothing else. With best wishes to every one, malice toward none." (Signed) H. C. Jones, 7-25-07.

After writing the above on the pasteboard cover of a tablet of writing paper, Henry C. Jones, formerly auditor of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railway, with general offices in Nashville, sent a bullet into his brain this morning, in the home of his father, No. 412 North Leonard avenue.

Mr. Jones had been afflicted with rheumatism since 1910. He had been told several friends that his sickness was becoming unbearable, but he held up his hand to any suggestion of leaving his home.

The night before the shooting, Mr. Jones said nothing about taking his life. He had been drinking heavily and talked about "warmer places." He was heard walking about his room after the shooting.

A few weeks ago, Mr. Jones joined the Lucas Avenue Presbyterian Church. He was 33 years old and well-to-do. His wife died four years ago.

Shortly after, he was attacked by the ailment which caused him to take his life. He leaves a daughter 5 years old. The body will be shipped to Nashville for burial.

HARRIMAN'S COMING TO MAKE CASH FLY.

New Arcade Depot and Greater Activity in Trolley Expansion Predicted as Result of Magnate's Visit Here Early Next Month.

TELEGRAPHIC advices from New York announce that E. H. Harriman will leave there within the next few days for the Pacific Coast. The railroad magnate is expected in Los Angeles August 10. A prominent Southern Pacific official said yesterday that the "big chief" probably will remain here several days. A number of things will be doing after his arrival on the ground since his interests here are so great, and it is said he is extremely desirous of gaining that broad insight into its affairs that can come only through a personal inspection.

Among the improvements of this property are the subway and tunnel leading west from the proposed new station near Hill and Fifth streets to a connection with the present Sixth-street line to the sea, the tunnel under Hill street from First street to Sunset boulevard, the broad-gauging of all the lines of the company and the laying of heavier steel, and the building of the great new station on the site of the old Masonic Temple, on Hill, just north of Fifth street.

MUSIC COIN NEEDED.

All of these betterments mean the outlay of an immense amount of money, which doesn't grow on bushes. While some of these improvements are going forward, none, it is declared, can be completed until funds in large amounts are available. Here again the ability of Mr. Harriman to call for the money is the great factor. It is expected that his visit will result in setting the money wheels in motion.

When it is considered that the betterments planned for the Los Angeles-Pacific mean the practical reconstruction of that line at immense cost, it is not looked upon as a stranger that Mr. Harriman, whose investment is great, should want to look into the situation for himself. This trip to the Coast, his first opportunity in many months to snatch a few weeks from his busy life in the East, will give him the desired opportunity. No one doubts that his visit will be followed by a livelier movement all along the line of railroad building in the territory with which he is particularly concerned.

MAY MEET MR. HUNTINGTON.

It now seems to be settled that H. E. Huntington, whose vast railway interests eclipse those of the big Los Angeles-Pacific, will be in Los Angeles when Mr. Harriman arrives, and that the two great railroad men will meet before the arrival of Mr. Harriman. Just what may be the outcome of this prospective meeting of the two railroad and trolley heads is a matter of only conjecture. Indications are that no hostilities will follow. In fact, it is believed that the utmost harmony prevails between these two magnates.

In addition to the trolley matters that draw Mr. Harriman to Los Angeles is the activity of the Western Pacific (the Gould line) in seeking an entrance to this city. The Southern Pacific already is battling with the Western Pacific for possession of a right of way across the Malibu ranch, the prized strip of the Rindge estate that lies along the Coast north of Santa Monica. It is perhaps to the interest of Mr. Harriman that the Gould road be hampered as much as possible in the activity of the Western Pacific. So the Pacific Coast tour of the railroad and financial king promises to be something more than a mere outing in the Oregon woods.

Harriman's Say-so.

NEW YORK, July 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Edward H. Harriman announced today that he would soon leave for an extended trip to the Pacific Coast. He said his trip is to look over his various railroad properties in that part of the country. He will be gone four or five weeks. No definite date is set for his departure. It is understood that the financial situation in San Francisco, as well as the affairs of the Harriman railroad properties, induced Mr. Harriman to go to the Coast.

PICNIC AT MASONIC HOME.

Acacia Chapter, No. 21, O.E.S., and members of the order and their friends will have a basket picnic today at the Southern California Masonic Home, East San Gabriel. Trains leave the Pacific Electric depot at 4:10 p. m., and every twenty minutes thereafter until 6 o'clock. Dinner will be served immediately on the arrival of the car which leaves Los Angeles at 4 o'clock.

SO CONFUSING TO THE BRIDE.

Mixing of Mothers' Names Is the Cause of Duplicate Wedding.

The marriage puzzle of San Dimas has been solved. The gossip of that foothill community are telling why Lulah A. Burnham on May 17 obtained a license to wed Albert A. Russ and, after they were married, on May 25, she obtained another license to marry the same man, and they were again wedded on that date by the same clergyman in Los Angeles.

It was known that both the contracting parties had been divorced, and it was presumed that the marriage vows had been taken again before the legal time required. But a search of the records at the Court-house explains the cause of all the trouble. Among other very personal questions asked the bride by the license clerk are the names of the bride's parents. In the first license issued to Lulah A. Burnham May 17, her father's name was given as Charles Ketchum, while her mother's name was given as Phebe A. Traub, a resident of San Dimas. In the second marriage license issued July 8, her mother's maiden name was given as Phebe Hiles.

This error is said to have caused the second hasty marriage. No great surprise is felt that Mrs. Burnham should have forgotten her mother's name. Mrs. Burnham has been married twice, while her mother, now, Mrs. Traub, is credited with seven husbands.

ACHED TO SEE THEIR AUNTIE.

TWO BOY TOTS STEAL HORSES AND BICYCLES.

Santa Monica Youngsters of Tender Years Find Charm at Toluca Too Strong to Resist and Their Appropriation of Animals and Vehicles Lands Them in Detention Home.

The theft of two bicycles, two horses and two buggies in one week, would be a bad record for even a hardened ex-convict, but when two babes do this much at a starter, it is time to sit up and take notice. This is exactly what two little boys have done within the past week. They landed in the Detention Home yesterday.

Santa Monica is responsible for this precocious pair of brother youngsters, Kenneth and Oliver Davis. Kenneth has reached the mature age of 10 years and Oliver is just 8. They are two of the four children of Mrs. Joseph Davis of Santa Monica. Their father is employed in a meat market.

The boys have an aunt who lives at Toluca. According to their story they heard their aunt was at home, so they went with her father to Toluca. They were there for a day and night and decided to visit their aunt. They walked down a street in Santa Monica and, seeing two bicycles, mounted them and started off. The next day they were at Toluca. The wheels later were returned to their owners and their father arranged the affair satisfactorily.

Taken back home, the boys behaved well enough until last Wednesday when they again heard the call of the wild of Toluca. This time they appropriated a horse and buggy belonging to Richmond Plant of No. 760 Ottawa street, and started off for Toluca. The boys had no driver, but they did not call on their aunt Wednesday night, but unhitched the horse, tied him to a tree and, without any supper, went to sleep in the buggy.

During the night the horse broke away. Yesterday morning the boys rubbed their eyes and, no breakfast in sight, walked four miles to Hollywood. Still desiring to see their aunt at Toluca, they looked around for a conveyance. They were only little kids in knee pants and bare feet and didn't like to walk four miles back to Toluca. They spied another horse and buggy. They climbed in and started off again toward Toluca and their dear aunt.

The father of the boys went to the home late yesterday afternoon and was allowed to take the younger boy Oliver, home with him. Kenneth was left behind. His case will be disposed of later.

TO PROTECT THE FORESTS.

The need of improvements for the protection of the California watersheds will be aided to the attention of Hon. James R. Garfield, Secretary of the Interior, during his visit to this city. E. N. Charlton, forester in charge of the San Gabriel and San Bernardino forest reserves says that a general system of fire breaks and trails is needed. He expects to take Secretary Garfield, United States Forester Gifford Pinchot and F. L. Newcomb, and hastened to the forest reserves in order to show what is needed. It is believed that the importance of safeguarding the watersheds will be at once appreciated and recommendations will be made in line of improved fire protection.

BELLHOP TO BOOK-KEEPER.

Boy Who Ran Away from Home Now Chief Accountant in His Father's Bank.

Ellison Warner, a bellhop son of a millionaire father at Engle, N. M., who refused to return to the parental arms until he had become a full-fledged book-keeper, through his own efforts, has at last reached the scene of his hopes.

For over six years, Warner worked as a bellhop in the Alexandria Hotel. He studied book-keeping at night. A few weeks ago he resigned his position at the hotel. A letter received from the boy yesterday by Fred S. Rowan, brother of R. A. Rowan, the real estate dealer, stated that Warner had been appointed head book-keeper in the First National Bank of Engle, N. M., which is owned by his father.

Warner ran away from his home on account of an attempt to force him to go to some eastern university. He had a burning desire to become an expert book-keeper. He did.

PLAN TO RESIST OLD ORDINANCE.

BUILDING OWNERS PROPOSE MUTUAL PROTECTION.

Municipal Law, Not Enforced for Several Years, Requiring Payment of Tax on Rooms, Is Cause of Grievance—Complaint of Tinkering With Fire Escape Regulations.

In order to protect themselves against hostile city ordinances and to come into closer relationship one with another, the builders and large property owners of the city are to form an organization with permanent quarters. Steps to this end were taken yesterday at a meeting held in the directors' room in the chamber of Commerce building.

A majority of the best-known owners and managers of office and store buildings in the downtown district were represented at the meeting. The aggregate wealth of those present would run into the tens of millions. Numerous expressions of loyalty to the best interests of the city were made, but a determined stand was unanimously taken against so-called vicious legislation intended to strike at property owners.

SAY IT IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

It was the stated opinion of the gentlemen present that the city ordinance requiring a special tax of $1 a year for each office room and $2 a year for each store room is unconstitutional. Ordinance referred to has been brought to light and the city is prepared to take measures to collect not only the last year's tax but for the two or three years previous, when no effort was made to enforce the ordinance.

Several speakers criticized the attitude of certain city officials in endeavoring to collect on what they were declared to have known was a dead letter law. Following a discussion of the best methods to be taken for self-protection, a motion was carried that a committee be appointed to make investigations into the status of the objectionable city ordinance and see if the members of the City Council are not disposed to vote for its repeal.

If this committee is unable to secure the attention of the Council towards repealing the ordinance, then a lawsuit will be brought and a determined legal fight will be instituted to settle the constitutionality of the special tax.

In addition, the committee is empowered to consider the agitation about fire escapes. Property owners complained that the present municipal legislation on this point is ridiculous. One man said that his fire escapes were in conformity with the ordinance in force, when he built his block. If subsequent City Council could be forever tinkering with a reasonable ordinance, the owner would be put to unreasonable expense in changing his fire escapes.

In view of various ordinances which have been passed from time to time, considered unfriendly, to the heavy tax payers and largest property owners, the general consensus of opinion was that the association should be formed at once and that all builders and owners should join for mutual aid.

The meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock. About forty prominent property owners were present. George Mason was chosen chairman and J. Kingley Macomber, secretary. It was stated that the object of the meeting was to consult in regard to taking necessary legal steps to protect the rights of the owners of store and office buildings.

HOW THEY FIGURE IT.

Each one present was asked to figure what his tax would total, if the objectionable ordinance were enforced. A little figuring showed that those present could contribute more than $200 a year if the tax on office and store rooms were collected. While willing to pay their legitimate taxes on their property valuation, a number expressed themselves strongly on the subject of the special tax, which was termed class legislation.

The proposition to form a permanent organization, similar to a Chicago association, met with unanimous approval. Several speakers said that such an organization would not only aid its members in resisting oppressive legislation, but would also be instrumental in inducing capital to invest in modern buildings in this city. It was said that outside capital needed encouragement and protection. No one would feel like investing several hundred thousands dollars in rental property if unjust ordinances were passed directed toward such owners.

A motion was carried empowering the chairman to appoint a committee of five to make investigation along lines suggested by the speakers, and to report at a future meeting to be called by the chairman. If the City Council can be induced to repeal the objectionable ordinance, the promised legal contest will be averted. But all present at yesterday's meeting said they would never pay the tax on offices and stores, unless the courts decided to that effect.

MARRIED, BUT DIDN'T KNOW.

Couple Thought They Were Divorced Fifteen Years Ago.

For over fifteen years Mrs. Lizzie A. Glinn and John L. Glinn thought they were divorced. Yesterday Mrs. Glinn was granted a real divorce by Judge James in the Superior Court. Mrs. Glinn has a son 17 years old, and Glinn has six children by a second wife, who thought she was legally married to him.

The couple were married in July, 1890, but in August of the same year Glinn is charged with having deserted his bride to "marry a Spanish woman." Shortly afterward Mrs. Glinn brought divorce proceedings in the Superior Court before Judge Clark, and there was a hearing. But it is claimed that Judge Clark died before entering a decree.

Meanwhile, the couple thought they were free, and the man married. Recently Mrs. Glinn discovered that she was still a wife, and hastened to get free of the marital bonds which had failed to gall because she was unaware of it.
